Dear Mr. Dulles:

I have only recently located your address, and so now can unite you.

I wish to convey to you my sorrow and grief at the prospect of your brother's career. I only want you to know that I think he has done a truly remarkable and great job as Secretary of State.

I write to ask a favor of you. Please send me your autograph for my collection. I would be proud to display it beside the autograph of your brother, John Foster Dulles, which I already have.

Sincerely,
Gerald L. Arnholt,
